

- 1. The first part of the text (lines 1-4) describes the general situation of the country. The author mentions that the country is a developing one and that it has a long history of struggle for independence.
- 2. The second part of the text (lines 5-8) describes the economic situation of the country. The author mentions that the country is a developing one and that it has a long history of struggle for independence.
- 3. The third part of the text (lines 9-12) describes the social situation of the country. The author mentions that the country is a developing one and that it has a long history of struggle for independence.
- 4. The fourth part of the text (lines 13-16) describes the political situation of the country. The author mentions that the country is a developing one and that it has a long history of struggle for independence.
- 5. The fifth part of the text (lines 17-20) describes the cultural situation of the country. The author mentions that the country is a developing one and that it has a long history of struggle for independence.
- 6. The sixth part of the text (lines 21-24) describes the environmental situation of the country. The author mentions that the country is a developing one and that it has a long history of struggle for independence.
- 7. The seventh part of the text (lines 25-28) describes the educational situation of the country. The author mentions that the country is a developing one and that it has a long history of struggle for independence.
- 8. The eighth part of the text (lines 29-32) describes the health situation of the country. The author mentions that the country is a developing one and that it has a long history of struggle for independence.
- 9. The ninth part of the text (lines 33-36) describes the housing situation of the country. The author mentions that the country is a developing one and that it has a long history of struggle for independence.

Questions for Oral Answers

1. What is the main topic of the text? (lines 1-4)
2. What is the author's attitude towards the country? (lines 5-8)
3. What are the main problems of the country? (lines 9-12)
4. What are the main achievements of the country? (lines 13-16)
5. What is the author's opinion on the future of the country? (lines 17-20)
6. What are the main reasons for the country's problems? (lines 21-24)
7. What are the main solutions to the country's problems? (lines 25-28)
8. What is the author's conclusion? (lines 29-32)
9. What is the main message of the text? (lines 33-36)

