

- 1. The first part of the text describes the general situation of the country. (Paragraphs 1-3) - The author mentions the economic crisis and the political instability.
- 2. The second part of the text focuses on the social issues. (Paragraphs 4-6) - The author discusses the high unemployment rate and the lack of social services.
- 3. The third part of the text talks about the environmental problems. (Paragraphs 7-9) - The author mentions the deforestation and the pollution of the water resources.
- 4. The fourth part of the text describes the cultural heritage. (Paragraphs 10-12) - The author mentions the traditional festivals and the historical monuments.
- 5. The fifth part of the text discusses the future prospects. (Paragraphs 13-15) - The author mentions the need for economic reforms and the role of the government.
- 6. The sixth part of the text talks about the international relations. (Paragraphs 16-18) - The author mentions the country's membership in the World Trade Organization and the European Union.
- 7. The seventh part of the text describes the current situation. (Paragraphs 19-21) - The author mentions the ongoing negotiations and the recent developments.
- 8. The eighth part of the text discusses the challenges. (Paragraphs 22-24) - The author mentions the need for more investment and the improvement of the infrastructure.
- 9. The ninth part of the text talks about the opportunities. (Paragraphs 25-27) - The author mentions the potential for growth and the role of the private sector.
- 10. The tenth part of the text describes the conclusion. (Paragraphs 28-30) - The author summarizes the main points and offers some recommendations.

Questions for Oral Answers

1. What is the main topic of the text?