

- 1. The first part of the text (lines 1-4) describes the general situation of the country. The author mentions that the country is a developing one and that it has a long history of struggle for independence.
- 2. The second part of the text (lines 5-8) describes the economic situation of the country. The author mentions that the country has a high unemployment rate and that the economy is in a state of stagnation.
- 3. The third part of the text (lines 9-12) describes the social situation of the country. The author mentions that there is a large gap between the rich and the poor and that there is a high level of corruption.
- 4. The fourth part of the text (lines 13-16) describes the political situation of the country. The author mentions that there is a lack of democracy and that the government is corrupt.
- 5. The fifth part of the text (lines 17-20) describes the cultural situation of the country. The author mentions that there is a rich cultural heritage and that there is a strong sense of national identity.
- 6. The sixth part of the text (lines 21-24) describes the environmental situation of the country. The author mentions that there is a serious problem of deforestation and that there is a high level of air pollution.
- 7. The seventh part of the text (lines 25-28) describes the future of the country. The author mentions that there is a need for reform and that there is a hope for a better future.
- 8. The eighth part of the text (lines 29-32) describes the author's conclusion. The author mentions that the country has a long way to go and that there is a need for action.
- 9. The ninth part of the text (lines 33-36) describes the author's recommendation. The author mentions that there is a need for a comprehensive reform and that there is a need for a strong leadership.
- 10. The tenth part of the text (lines 37-40) describes the author's final thoughts. The author mentions that there is a need for a better future and that there is a need for a better country.
- 11. The eleventh part of the text (lines 41-44) describes the author's signature. The author mentions that he is a student and that he is writing this text for his class.

Questions for Oral Answers

1. What is the main topic of the text? (lines 1-4)
2. What is the author's attitude towards the country's situation? (lines 5-8)
3. What are the main problems mentioned in the text? (lines 9-12)
4. What is the author's opinion on the political situation? (lines 13-16)
5. What is the author's opinion on the cultural situation? (lines 17-20)
6. What is the author's opinion on the environmental situation? (lines 21-24)
7. What is the author's opinion on the future of the country? (lines 25-28)
8. What is the author's conclusion? (lines 29-32)
9. What is the author's recommendation? (lines 33-36)
10. What are the author's final thoughts? (lines 37-40)
11. Who is the author? (lines 41-44)

