

- 1. The first part of the text describes the general situation of the company. The second part describes the specific measures taken to improve the situation.
- 2. The first part of the text describes the general situation of the company. The second part describes the specific measures taken to improve the situation.
- 3. The first part of the text describes the general situation of the company. The second part describes the specific measures taken to improve the situation.
- 4. The first part of the text describes the general situation of the company. The second part describes the specific measures taken to improve the situation.
- 5. The first part of the text describes the general situation of the company. The second part describes the specific measures taken to improve the situation.
- 6. The first part of the text describes the general situation of the company. The second part describes the specific measures taken to improve the situation.
- 7. The first part of the text describes the general situation of the company. The second part describes the specific measures taken to improve the situation.
- 8. The first part of the text describes the general situation of the company. The second part describes the specific measures taken to improve the situation.
- 9. The first part of the text describes the general situation of the company. The second part describes the specific measures taken to improve the situation.
- 10. The first part of the text describes the general situation of the company. The second part describes the specific measures taken to improve the situation.

Questions for Oral Answers

1. What is the main problem of the company? How does it affect the company's performance?
2. What are the reasons for the company's problems? How can they be solved?
3. What measures has the company taken to improve its performance? How effective are they?
4. What are the company's future plans? How do they relate to the current situation?
5. What is the company's financial situation? How does it compare to the industry?
6. What is the company's market position? How does it compare to its competitors?
7. What is the company's customer base? How does it differ from its competitors?
8. What is the company's production process? How does it differ from its competitors?
9. What is the company's management structure? How does it differ from its competitors?
10. What is the company's overall strategy? How does it differ from its competitors?

