

- 1. The first part of the text (lines 1-10) describes the general situation of the country. What are the main problems mentioned?
- 2. How does the author describe the economic situation? What are the main causes of the problems?
- 3. What are the social consequences of the economic situation? How does the author describe the living conditions of the population?
- 4. How does the author describe the political situation? What are the main causes of the problems?
- 5. What are the author's views on the future of the country? What solutions does he propose?
- 6. How does the author describe the role of the government? What are the main responsibilities of the government?
- 7. What are the author's views on the role of the private sector? How does he describe the relationship between the state and the private sector?
- 8. How does the author describe the role of the media? What are the main responsibilities of the media?
- 9. What are the author's views on the role of the civil society? How does he describe the relationship between the state and the civil society?
- 10. How does the author describe the role of the international community? What are the main responsibilities of the international community?
- 11. What are the author's views on the role of the education system? How does he describe the relationship between the state and the education system?
- 12. How does the author describe the role of the health system? What are the main responsibilities of the health system?
- 13. What are the author's views on the role of the environment? How does he describe the relationship between the state and the environment?
- 14. How does the author describe the role of the culture? What are the main responsibilities of the culture?
- 15. What are the author's views on the role of the sports system? How does he describe the relationship between the state and the sports system?

Questions for Oral Answers

1. What are the main problems mentioned in the text? How does the author describe the economic situation? What are the main causes of the problems?
2. How does the author describe the social consequences of the economic situation? What are the main responsibilities of the government?
3. What are the author's views on the future of the country? What solutions does he propose? How does he describe the relationship between the state and the private sector?
4. How does the author describe the role of the media? What are the main responsibilities of the media? How does he describe the relationship between the state and the civil society?
5. What are the author's views on the role of the education system? How does he describe the relationship between the state and the education system? What are the main responsibilities of the health system?

