

- 1. The first part of the text (lines 1-10) describes the general situation of the country. What are the main problems mentioned?
- 2. How does the author describe the economic situation? What are the main causes of the problems?
- 3. What are the social consequences of the economic situation? How does the author describe the living conditions of the population?
- 4. How does the author describe the political situation? What are the main causes of the problems?
- 5. What are the main causes of the problems? How does the author describe the living conditions of the population?
- 6. How does the author describe the political situation? What are the main causes of the problems?
- 7. What are the main causes of the problems? How does the author describe the living conditions of the population?
- 8. How does the author describe the political situation? What are the main causes of the problems?
- 9. What are the main causes of the problems? How does the author describe the living conditions of the population?
- 10. How does the author describe the political situation? What are the main causes of the problems?
- 11. What are the main causes of the problems? How does the author describe the living conditions of the population?
- 12. How does the author describe the political situation? What are the main causes of the problems?
- 13. What are the main causes of the problems? How does the author describe the living conditions of the population?
- 14. How does the author describe the political situation? What are the main causes of the problems?
- 15. What are the main causes of the problems? How does the author describe the living conditions of the population?
- 16. How does the author describe the political situation? What are the main causes of the problems?
- 17. What are the main causes of the problems? How does the author describe the living conditions of the population?
- 18. How does the author describe the political situation? What are the main causes of the problems?
- 19. What are the main causes of the problems? How does the author describe the living conditions of the population?
- 20. How does the author describe the political situation? What are the main causes of the problems?

Questions for Oral Answers

1. What are the main causes of the problems? How does the author describe the living conditions of the population?
2. How does the author describe the political situation? What are the main causes of the problems?
3. What are the main causes of the problems? How does the author describe the living conditions of the population?
4. How does the author describe the political situation? What are the main causes of the problems?
5. What are the main causes of the problems? How does the author describe the living conditions of the population?
6. How does the author describe the political situation? What are the main causes of the problems?

