

- 1. The first part of the text (lines 1-4) describes the general situation of the country. The author mentions that the country is a developing one and that it has a long history of struggle for independence.
- 2. The second part of the text (lines 5-8) describes the economic situation of the country. The author mentions that the country is a poor one and that it has a high unemployment rate.
- 3. The third part of the text (lines 9-12) describes the social situation of the country. The author mentions that the country is a multi-ethnic one and that there are many different languages spoken in the country.
- 4. The fourth part of the text (lines 13-16) describes the political situation of the country. The author mentions that the country is a democracy and that it has a multi-party system.
- 5. The fifth part of the text (lines 17-20) describes the cultural situation of the country. The author mentions that the country has a rich cultural heritage and that it is a country of many traditions.
- 6. The sixth part of the text (lines 21-24) describes the future of the country. The author mentions that the country has a bright future and that it is a country of many opportunities.
- 7. The seventh part of the text (lines 25-28) describes the author's personal feelings about the country. The author mentions that he loves his country and that he is proud to be a citizen of it.
- 8. The eighth part of the text (lines 29-32) describes the author's conclusion. The author mentions that the country is a country of many challenges, but that it is also a country of many opportunities.
- 9. The ninth part of the text (lines 33-36) describes the author's final thoughts. The author mentions that he hopes that the country will continue to progress and that it will become a more developed country.

Questions for Oral Answers

1. What is the main topic of the text?
2. What is the author's opinion about the country's economic situation?
3. What is the author's opinion about the country's social situation?
4. What is the author's opinion about the country's political situation?
5. What is the author's opinion about the country's cultural situation?
6. What is the author's opinion about the country's future?
7. What is the author's personal feelings about the country?
8. What is the author's conclusion about the country?
9. What is the author's final thoughts about the country?

