

- 1. The first part of the text (lines 1-10) describes the general situation of the country.
- 2. The second part (lines 11-20) focuses on the economic aspects of the situation.
- 3. The third part (lines 21-30) discusses the social and cultural challenges.
- 4. The fourth part (lines 31-40) mentions the government's policies and initiatives.
- 5. The fifth part (lines 41-50) talks about the role of the private sector.
- 6. The sixth part (lines 51-60) addresses the environmental issues.
- 7. The seventh part (lines 61-70) discusses the international relations.
- 8. The eighth part (lines 71-80) mentions the progress in various fields.
- 9. The ninth part (lines 81-90) talks about the future prospects.
- 10. The tenth part (lines 91-100) concludes the text with a summary.
- 11. The text is written in a formal and objective style.
- 12. The main purpose is to provide a comprehensive overview of the country's current state.
- 13. The author uses a variety of sentence structures to maintain interest.
- 14. The use of specific data and statistics adds credibility to the report.
- 15. The text is well-organized and easy to follow.
- 16. The language is clear and concise, avoiding unnecessary details.
- 17. The overall tone is positive, highlighting the achievements and potential.
- 18. The text is suitable for a wide range of readers, from students to professionals.
- 19. The information is up-to-date and relevant to the current context.
- 20. The text is a good example of effective communication in a formal setting.

Questions for Oral Answers

1. What is the main topic of the text?
2. What are the key points mentioned in the first paragraph?
3. How does the author describe the economic situation?
4. What challenges are mentioned in the text?

