

- 1. The first part of the text (lines 1-4) describes the general situation of the country. The author mentions that the country is a developing one and that it has a long history of political instability.
- 2. The second part of the text (lines 5-8) discusses the economic situation. The author states that the country has a high unemployment rate and that the economy is in a state of stagnation.
- 3. The third part of the text (lines 9-12) talks about the social situation. The author notes that there is a large gap between the rich and the poor and that there is a high level of corruption.
- 4. The fourth part of the text (lines 13-16) describes the political situation. The author mentions that there are several political parties and that the government is weak.
- 5. The fifth part of the text (lines 17-20) discusses the cultural situation. The author states that there is a rich cultural heritage and that there is a strong sense of national identity.
- 6. The sixth part of the text (lines 21-24) talks about the environmental situation. The author notes that there is a lot of deforestation and that there is a high level of air pollution.
- 7. The seventh part of the text (lines 25-28) describes the health situation. The author mentions that there is a high level of infant mortality and that there is a lack of access to healthcare.
- 8. The eighth part of the text (lines 29-32) discusses the education situation. The author states that there is a high level of illiteracy and that there is a lack of investment in education.
- 9. The ninth part of the text (lines 33-36) talks about the infrastructure situation. The author notes that there is a lack of roads and that there is a high level of poverty.
- 10. The tenth part of the text (lines 37-40) describes the overall situation. The author concludes that the country is in a state of crisis and that there is a need for reform.

Questions for Oral Answers

1. What is the main topic of the text? What is the author's purpose in writing it?
2. What are the main problems mentioned in the text? How does the author describe the economic situation?
3. What are the main problems mentioned in the text? How does the author describe the social situation?
4. What are the main problems mentioned in the text? How does the author describe the political situation?
5. What are the main problems mentioned in the text? How does the author describe the cultural situation?
6. What are the main problems mentioned in the text? How does the author describe the environmental situation?
7. What are the main problems mentioned in the text? How does the author describe the health situation?
8. What are the main problems mentioned in the text? How does the author describe the education situation?
9. What are the main problems mentioned in the text? How does the author describe the infrastructure situation?
10. What are the main problems mentioned in the text? How does the author describe the overall situation?
11. What are the main problems mentioned in the text? How does the author describe the overall situation?
12. What are the main problems mentioned in the text? How does the author describe the overall situation?

