

- 1. The first part of the text describes the general situation of the country in the early 1990s. (1990-1995) and the impact of the economic crisis on the population.
- 2. The second part of the text focuses on the social and cultural changes that took place during this period. (1995-2000) and the role of the state in these changes.
- 3. The third part of the text discusses the political developments and the transition to democracy. (2000-2005) and the challenges faced by the new government.
- 4. The fourth part of the text examines the economic recovery and the role of international organizations. (2005-2010) and the impact of globalization on the country's economy.
- 5. The fifth part of the text analyzes the social and cultural trends in the 21st century. (2010-2015) and the role of technology in these trends.
- 6. The sixth part of the text discusses the current political and economic situation of the country. (2015-2020) and the challenges it faces in the future.
- 7. The seventh part of the text provides a summary of the main findings and conclusions of the study. (2020-2025) and the implications for policy-making.
- 8. The eighth part of the text discusses the methodology used in the study and the limitations of the data. (2025-2030) and the need for further research.
- 9. The ninth part of the text provides a list of references and sources used in the study. (2030-2035) and the acknowledgments of the authors.
- 10. The tenth part of the text is the conclusion of the study. (2035-2040) and the final thoughts of the authors.

Questions for Oral Answers

1. What were the main causes of the economic crisis in the early 1990s? (1990-1995) and how did it affect the population?
2. How did the social and cultural changes in the 1990s reflect the transition to democracy? (1995-2000) and what role did the state play in these changes?
3. What were the key political developments in the early 2000s? (2000-2005) and what challenges did the new government face?

